Healthy Families & Communities receives $250,000 Housing for Everyone Grant from the TD Charitable Foundation

Grant funding will support Healthy Families & Communities in preventing eviction risk and stabilizing survivor housing by focusing on early intervention through combined counseling and rental aid.

Camden, NJ, April 21, 2026 – Healthy Families & Communities, a community-based delivering social and human services, was recently awarded a $250,000 Housing for Everyone grant from the TD Charitable Foundation, the giving arm of TD Bank U.S. Healthy Families & Communities is one of 40 nonprofit organizations across TD's footprint to receive funding through the 20th annual Housing for Everyone grant program, which supports solutions that foster early intervention, advance housing stability and decisively address housing challenges for renters in low- to moderate-income communities.

Housing instability remains a critical issue for individuals and families nationwide, driven by rising living costs, financial hardship, and challenges navigating housing systems. In recognition of the program's 20th anniversary and its longstanding commitment to housing affordability, the TD Charitable Foundation awarded $10 million in total grants in 2026, its largest Housing for Everyone investment to date, to support organizations focused on preventing eviction and promoting long-term housing stability.

This year's Housing for Everyone grantees were selected for their proactive approaches to eviction prevention and housing stabilization, which help individuals and families remain housed, reduce financial stress, and strengthen communities.

Through this grant, Healthy Families & Communities supports eviction prevention for domestic violence survivors at risk of losing housing, including rental assistance to resolve back rent, and staff providing housing navigation and counseling.

The program will serve 50 households, prevent eviction for most participants, and help families maintain stable housing while connecting them to longer-term supports.

"This generous $250,000 grant will enable us to keep individuals and families safely housed, prevent evictions before they occur, and foster long-term housing stability," said Michel Acevedo-Zmuda, Chief Executive and Operations Officer at Healthy Families & Communities

"As we celebrate 20 years of the Housing for Everyone program, I am deeply proud of the collaborations we continue to foster to make a meaningful difference in our communities and to keep people securely and safely housed," said Paige Carlson-Heim, Head of Social Impact at TD and Director of TD Charitable Foundation.

As it celebrates 20 years of collaboration with frontline nonprofits in housing affordability, the TD Charitable Foundation's Housing for Everyone grant program highlights TD's enduring dedication to building stronger communities through stable, affordable housing. Since its inception in 2005, the program has invested over $73 million, supporting more than 675 affordable housing projects from Maine to Florida.
